

A L L
W I L L
S E E

WORSHIPNW

Leadership Track

Breakout 1

Room	Class Title Description
123	OnSong class Jason Squires Anthem Church San Rafael, CA jsmusic.net Onsong is a chord chart management app available for iOS devices. It allows you to have your entire library on your iPad. This class will focus on loading in and formatting chord charts as well as the basic ins and outs of the app. Having the app on your iPad is recommended for the class but not required.
124	Shepherding Your Team Michael Bahn River Valley Church Medford, OR michaelbahn.com Trevor Bowen New Life Nazarene Church Medford, OR The members of your worship team are so much more than just the providers of the musical or technical skill that you need. They are real people, with real lives and challenges, who need leaders that really care for them. Maybe you've heard it said, "People don't care how much you know, until they know how much you care." Without developing intentionality in our shepherding, it can be challenging to communicate care for our team members. Come dialogue with us about the ways you have felt cared for, and how you can care for your team, both collectively and individually.
302	A Case for Creativity Chris Voigt Dayspring Fellowship Keizer, OR chrisvoigtworship.com Advances in neuroscience have taught scientists much about how the brain processes information. Our culture has made effective use of this data to influence how we spend our time and money. But, how might we use these insights to help people connect more deeply with God? In this breakout we'll discuss these discoveries and learn how understanding them can help us design meaningful and memorable worship experiences that move people to take steps of obedience.
301	Follow the Leader Michelle Haywood Smith River Valley Church Grants Pass, OR michellehaywoodsmith.com In order for there to be leaders, there must also be followers. Many worship leaders and ministry team members are either volunteers or are in an associate role. And even lead worship pastors are in a position to be following the vision and direction of the lead teaching pastor and the elder board. This class will be a conversation about the challenges, responsibilities, and opportunities that come with both being a leader and a follower, and some thoughts on how we can be better at both.
125	Personal Monitor Mixing Andrew Swanson Alclair Audio Osseo, MN alclair.com In this breakout, Andy will help you figure out what you need to hear in your ears and how to get there. Whether you are a worship leader, a vocalist, or an instrumentalist, we'll spend time focusing on each part of the worship team, along with a general overview of how to get a good mix. Whether you are just thinking about in-ears, just beginning to use them, or in need of some good hints and tips on how to make the most of the ones you've got, this class will give you the information you need to fine tune your IEMs.

BREAKOUTS

Faculty bios are available at worshipnorthwest.com or at registration solutions.

A L L
W I L L
S E E

WORSHIPNW

Leadership Track (continued)

	Room	Class Title Description
Breakout 2	123	Relational Stage Communication Jason Squires Anthem Church San Rafael, CA jsmusic.net Standing on stage can be a weird feeling. What do you say? How do you transition? This class will look at ways to be a more effective communicator and help engage your audience.
	302	Ask Away Chris Voigt Dayspring Fellowship Keizer, OR chrisvoigtworship.com Michael Bahn River Valley Community Church Grants Pass, OR michaelbahn.com You've got questions?? We will do our very best to have answers! With more than 50 years of ministry experience between them, Chris and Michael have both walked through the highs and lows of being a worship pastor and seen God's sovereignty and faithfulness through it all. Join them for this transparent look at ministry life, as they respond to your questions about the challenges you're facing in your church, team, or ministry.
	124	Women in Worship Ministry Joi Hailey Rolling Hills Community Church Tualatin, OR As a woman worship leader who works in a male denominated field, it can often feel that your role is overlooked. In this class we will consider the value of women worship leaders, gain insight for working cohesively with both male and female leaders and volunteers, and discuss the importance of your role and your voice.
	125	Refocusing Our Vision for Worship Dr. Tim Smith Worship Without Borders Aloha, OR wwob.org What is your vision for worship in your church? What is He revealing? "If people can't see what God is doing, they stumble all over themselves; But when they attend to what he reveals, they are most blessed." [Proverbs 29:18 MSG] Evangelist DL Moody said, "If God be your partner, make your plans big." We need big vision, big faith, Word-drenched, Spirit-empowered worship in our churches today in this challenging season. Come and refocus on Him.
	Whiteaker 120	Leading From the Piano Lisa Reiff River West Church Lake Oswego, OR Have you wondered how to take the basic piano skill you've acquired through the years and translate that into playing piano as you sing and lead worship? Moving from note-reading to chord-playing and/or accompanying yourself on piano while you sing takes practice, but this breakout is designed to help you gain confidence as you work toward accompanying yourself during worship.

Faculty bios are available at worshipnorthwest.com or at registration solutions.

BREAKOUTS

A L L
W I L L
S E E

WORSHIPNW

Leadership Track (continued)

Breakout 3

Room	Class Title Description
124	Set Planning Tool Box Michael Bahn River Valley Church Grants Pass, OR michaelbahn.com Every weekend we have the honor of leading people into the presence of Jesus; helping them connect with and experience Him in the context of a corporate gathering. However, doing this every week can make it easy to get stuck in a creative planning rut! This session will give you the tools needed to effectively create and execute meaningful worship sets, week after week.
302	Battling Discouragement as a Worship Leader Chris Voigt Dayspring Fellowship Keizer, OR chrisvoigtworship.com It doesn't take long before you realize it...being in ministry is not all sunshine, roses, and hallelujahs. There are ups and downs, highs and lows, there's the good, and the hard. So what do you do when the hard seems overwhelming? How do you keep pressing on? Discouragement in ministry can come from a thousand different directions; criticism, conflict, betrayal, disappointment. After being in ministry for more than 25 years, Chris is well-equipped to share hope and help for those seasons of discouragement you may be facing now, or that will surely come your way.
301	You Are Not Alone: Building Community in Ministry Joi Hailey Rolling Hills Community Church Tualatin, OR One of the most important parts of sustaining a healthy ministry as a worship leader is having a group of people with whom you find unity and support. A regular gathering of other worship leaders can provide that kind of unity to help sustain you as you navigate the highs and lows of being a ministry leader. Come see how this model has worked in the Portland Area and get ideas for how you can launch an authentic community in your area.
125	Engaging Your Congregation Dr. Tim Smith Worship Without Borders Aloha, OR wwob.org Remember, everyone is a singer, a worshiper, a priest and a king. Your congregation is full of prospective passion and purpose. We entrust the holy and sacred into their hands, their voices and their lives. 'We must see Jesus' high and lifted up and exalted among us. Victorious in every life. Vibrant in every song. Visiting every generation. Changing every heart. In this class we discuss practical ways to release your beautiful congregation into passionate worship.

BREAKOUTS

Faculty bios are available at worshipnorthwest.com or at registration solutions.